In other buzz-worthy news:

Social Studies:

This week, we will continue to have mock city council meetings. Best wishes to our newly elected mayor, Joshua Crago! Our council members and citizens have been hard at work, solving our classroom city's latest problems. This is a very good at critical thinking!!! Wow!!!

Math:

We will continue our mini review unit on perimeter and area. We will definitely take these skills further as we discuss composite images and the distributive property. Multiplication and division skills are still very important. We will begin a new incentive for the remaining days of third grade in which students may earn an ice cream or nacho party for mastering their facts—

—or earning a pizza party by going “beyond the facts” (square roots, squared #s, decimals to fractions, etc.) Best wishes, third grade students!

English/Writing:

We are still very interested in the MYSTERY GENRE, with our very special “Detectives Unit.” We are also working on our Student Treasures books!
