Reading

This week, we will read a wonderful story called, "A New Coat for Anna." This is a heartwarming story about a little girl who grew up during a war. Because of sure hardships her family faced during the war, Anna has to show enough patience to wait for an entire year for her mother to get her a new coat. Since Anna's mother does not have much money, she bar- ters with a farmer, weaver, tailors, and a spinner in exchange for their services!

Vocabulary words for this story are:

1. Weaver
 2. Strung
 3. Wound
 4. Bolt
 5. Remained
- *Bonus — "Card" as in to card a sheep's wool.

In other buzz-worthy news:

Cursive Writing:

We have learned to use cursive in most of our daily activities. The only time we are not using it, (it is NOT required, but some choose to) is on our spelling/ reading tests. We will continue with our poetry cursive journals this month as well!

Social Studies / Science

Science and Social Studies will take a break after Christ- mas in order to prepare for ISAT. You won't see ISAT materials coming home yet because we keep most of them at school to practice until February.

Math:

We will begin Chapter 4, our subtraction unit. We will learn how to subtract across several zeros, subtract money, and subtract by regrouping (borrowing). This will be a challenging week in math!

15 Min Facts will be coming home! Please be sure to practice at least 15 mins each night!

English/Writing:

We will our study of adjectives this week with sev- eral fun activities related to winter! We are also studying written responses. We will discuss various aspects of writing, but most importantly, making con- nections to ourselves, books we have read, and the world around us!
